

This is truly inappropriate and should not be allowed. It's time that we make a stand and do not allow this to become a dirty election. What ever happened to a honest clean fight? I'm just tired of all this mud-slinging. Let's deal with the real issues at hand and listen to both of their stands on these issues. This is the way the democratic process should work. Isn't this why we are proud to be Americans?